THE Democracy have begun the work of reform in earnest. John Morrissey is now the leader of the party in New York city, which virtually controls the State.

Moses, the Governor of South Carolina one of the journals of that State tells us, made a speech a few days ago "In which he ably defended the Republican party." Now, Moses had better "let up" on that sort of thing. The Republican party needs no defence at his hands. He has brought discredit and disgrace, upon it and the best hing he can do is to leave it.

$ THE renomination of the Hon. L. P. Poland is another defeat of the Liberal-Republican press. For his manly and independent action in regard to the District he was singled out for abuse and vilification by Dana and his disreputable followers, our citizens will rejoice over his success.

THERE can be very little doubt that the ceive." Democracy won in the late election in Vicksburg only by fraud and intimidation. For days before the election the opposition papers were filled with threats of what hey would do and would not do in case they were defeated. The Vicksburger, for instance, appealed to its party to lot the town, built by white men and to be ruled "for all time by white men." The Mississippi Pilot in accounting for the majority of "mocracy were thoroughly organized and "armed, to a man, with a full determination "to control the city, let the cost be what it 'might. Had the Republicans gone en masse "to the polis and wated, and had the officers "would have forfeited their lives."

PRESIDENT GRANT AND THE SOUTH.

The New York Tribune very sagely rewhen its former editor ran for President. that treason to those principles or theories, it as the especial suimosity of Mr. Greeley, and they probably never will. They consequently have been forced to look elsewhere, outside of its ranks, for some man of probity, of decision of character, and undeniable love of justice as a national leader. The natural result of their search was the discovery that no man other than President Grant could be found to meet their requirehis true character, not as a friend of the South, of the North, of the East, or of the West, but as a national man and the friend of all sections. The Third-Term discussion ensued, and the idea naturally followed that President Grant would make an avail. able candidate for a second re-election. Forthwith the fire-eaters of the South, who are never anything unless insanely extreme, lieved that he would so far forget himself, sins. his pride of consistency, and his pledges to the people in times past, as to become the representative of a single race in a single Wonderful! isn't it, that the Tribune, printed in New York and edited by ex-Buckeyesand New England Yankres, should know so much more about the South than the Southern people themselves? But this knowledge is born of that kind of independent journalism for which the Tribune is noted-an independence of facts. Setting aside the ludicrous comparison of President Grant with Jeff. Davis as unworthy of notice, let us examine the array of charges brought sgainst the President. He did not create

In one simple sententious sentence, "Why don't you send Moses to the penitentiary?" he did more to retrieve South Carolina from her deplorable disgrace than tenthousand columns of editorial in the Tribune could do. As regards the alleged mis-

But it is idle nonsense to proceed with this analysis of the Tribune's inconsistencles. They are so plain and so glaring that they expose themselves and at the same time expose the Tribune's inefficiency as a liar. "To be a good liar," says the old adage, "one must have a good memory," Can leaving the city for the summer can and in this qualification the Tribune is saily have the paper mailed to their address for deficient. Occasionally, however, it blunders into a good deed, as it did a few days ago in reproducing, for the benefit of its Southern readers, if it has any, a quotation from the President's second Inaugural Address. It is a quotation which is so apt to the present day and so pertinent to much of the current discussion that it should be reprinted by every political newspaper in the land. It would have stiffened the backbones of some of the weak-kneed Republicans of North Carolina, and it will serve now to revive some half-forgotten memories of the principles of the Republican party when it rallied its forces to victory in 1867 and 1868. It reads as follows: "The effects of the late civil war have been to free the slave and make him a citizen. Yet he is not possessed of the civil rights which citizenship should carry with it. This is wrong, and should be corrected. To this correction stand committed so far as executive influence can avail. Social equality is not a subject to be legislated upon, nor shall I ask that anywho have, however, failed to accomplish thing be done to advance the social status of their purpose of preventing his return to the colored man, except to give him a fair Congress. It is the party of just and "duty, many good and true colored citizens true principles, and is also the party of progress. What has it to apologize for, or what to take back? Nothing, absolutely nothing.

The policy of the Republican party in the coming campaign must be an aggressive one marks that "there can be no longer a seri- if it expects to win. In short, that the Democratic They have never forgiven it as a party for party has not a single principle nor an idea in harmony with republican and demowhich, before that time, had distinguished eratic institutions, but that it is thoroughly selfish, narrow, conceited and full of hate. Its free-trade doctrine, its repudiation notions, its greenback-inflation policy and its rampant zeal for place, power and the spoils stamp it as wholly unfit to rule and govern

Then they began to talk of him in last thirty years, has been on the side of despotic rule, and in favor of the few against the many. Its written and outspoken history identifies it with the slavery propaganda before the war, with secession and rebellion during the conflict, with negro hetred and in favor of a war of races since the war was ended.

The Republican party has a noble record, which needs no defence. Let its editors, began to assert a belief that President Grant lite orators and writers, therefore, put the would accept a nomination from the "White Democracy on the defensive, and charge Man's Party." In other words, they be-
